CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,J.

18th March 2005

P.C.:

. Heard Counsel for the parties. Perused the record. Having regard to the material on record to incriminate the Applicant in the commission of the crime and in view of the seriousness of the offence, not a case for bail. The injured has disclosed and described the name of the Applicant to witness Sandeep Narayan

Mahadik about the incident in question. The Applicant is stated to have given blow with sharp edged weapon which caused injury. The prosecution case is supported by the medical evidence on record. Besides, the blood-stained clothes and blood-stained knife have been recovered in terms of the discovery made by the Applicant. In view of the overwhelming material to indicate complicity of the Applicant, not a case for bail. Hence, rejected.

. As prayer for bail is rejected, the Sessions Judge, Thane, is directed to assign the case to the Fast Track Court, if not already done, to ensure early disposal of the trial as High Court Expedited Case.
